

An altered look about the hills—
 A Tyrian light the village fills—
 A wider sunrise in the dawn—
 A deeper twilight on the lawn—
 A print of a vermilion foot—
 A purple finger on the slope—
 A flippant fly upon the pane—
 A spider at his trade again—

APRIL 2024

An added strut in chanticleer—
 A flower expected everywhere—
 An axe shrill singing in the woods—
 Fern-odors on untravelled roads—
 All this, and more I cannot tell—
 A furtive look you know as well—
 And Nicodemus' mystery
 Receives its annual reply!

- Emily Dickinson
